MOTION by Lieske granting permission to the Bay Village Kiwanis Club to hold their annual Christmas Tree Sale from November 29 through December 21, 2013, west of the gazebo in Cahoon Memorial Park.

Motion passed 6-0.

Mr. Young commented that the Bay Village Kiwanis Club does such a great job, and one of the things that they try to do is to try to find help for the city with the costs in regard to Bay Days. In the past they have been contributing about $2,500 per year. This year they have contributed $4,267.00. Mr. Young expressed appreciation to the Kiwanis Club.

Mr. Ebert stated that the money received will offset some of the overtime costs for Bay Days. They are cognizant of the overtime incurred and are trying to increase their amount back to the city.

Mr. Tadych addressed Mr. Russ Bauknecht, representing the Bay Village Kiwanis Club and expressed appreciation to the Kiwanis Club for the extra effort on their contribution this year.

A round of applause followed.

Mr. Bauknecht stated that a Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast will be held on September 22, 2013. These fund-raisers help with the scholarship fund and the Caring and Sharing Program at the Bay Village Dwyer Center. All of the money raised in Bay Village stays in Bay Village. Mr. Bauknecht expressed appreciation to the city for their support.
