On 05/02/2018, at 0841 hrs, an officer was dispatched to the 29600 block of Wolf Rd. on the report that a couple had been scammed out of $750.00 on craigslist. A buyer in Florida agreed to purchase a hutch for $1,000. This buyer sent a check for $1,750, stating that the additional $750 was to pay for shipping the hutch to a Wisconsin address. The company name on the check indicated an address in Tennessee. The $1,750 check was deposited into the victim's account. $750 was then withdrawn and wired, using the Walmart-to-Walmart money wiring service, to a Walmart in Florida. The name of the recipient was to a female, not the buyer. The funds were picked up at 1228 hrs on May 1st and later that same day the victim's bank made notification that the original $1,750 check had bounced, this of course meant the victim was out the $750 withdrawn and wired hours before. It should be pointed out that the buyer was in Florida, the item was to be shipped to Wisconsin, a company in Tennessee supposedly issued the $1750 check and finally the name of the person receiving the $750 was a different person in Florida, not the buyer. Whether you are a buyer or a seller... beware.
