On February 23, at 11:21pm, the Bay Village Police received a call from the Bay Village Speedway reporting a dark SUV with a flat tire in the lot at around the store's closing time. Bay officers arrived on scene to assist and found the suspect vehicle and another vehicle with them. Police learned that the vehicle's tire was now fixed, however, officers noticed the overwhelming odor of marijuana was coming from the area of the vehicles. A probable cause search was conducted. Officers found marijuana, drug paraphernalia and an open container of alcohol inside the vehicles. The individuals are facing multiple charges in Rocky River Municipal Court.
