

BV60+ is a community where adults age 60+ can be socially engaged, physically active and mentally stimulated, with the goal of maintaining maximum mental and physical health as they age.

INTRODUCTION TO KAYAKING AND WATER SAFETY:
Presented by USCG Auxiliary and LoCoYaks

Tues. March 26th, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. at BV Senior Center

US Coast Guard Auxiliary (Bill Ferry and Kayak Jeff) teams up with LoCoYaks (Stephane) to present this very important class if you intend to join the BV60+ Kayak group this summer. Great refresher if you haven't kayaked for awhile. No kayaking involved tonight. Dry land session only.

FREE. RSVP vsprague@cityofbayvillage.com.

Cleveland Indians Home Opener
Watch Party

Monday April 1st, 4pm

Bring your favorite stadium chair and watch the first Indians home game in style on our large screen TV in the comfort of the Bay Village Senior Center. Hot dogs and popcorn will be provided. Bring lawn chairs, foam fingers and pennants. Please RSVP vsprague@cityofbayvillage.com.

Cleveland Indians History and Outlook

Music Box Supper Club Program (Free)
Wednesday, March 27th, 6:00 p.m.

Join Lakewood native and Senior Vice President of the Cleveland Indians, Bobby DiBiasco, as he tells audience members stories of the tribe through the years, as well as what the future will bring.

You can either drive yourself (parking at venue is $5) or ride our bus ($10 per person transportation fee). The program is FREE. 6 PM bus departure for 7PM program. RSVP required. vsprague@cityofbayvillage.com

Burntwood in Rocky River

March 21 from 4:30 to 6:30PM
