

Section One

Contained in this section you will find the basic requirements and recommendations of the City of Bay Village Building Department accompanied by diagrams and a corresponding glossary of terms commonly used in the building trades. As a final inclusion, you will find a building checklist illustrating those items most often observed by Building Inspectors when making their inspections.

