

Section Two

This Section describes improvements that the Building Department has found to be the most commonly occurring projects that the homeowner will at some time encounter. Illustrations and requirements are provided to aid the homeowner and help in obtaining a quality job.

