On October 5, 2019 at 10:58pm Bay Village Police responded to a home in the 27000 block of Lake Road for a noise complaint. The police spoke with individuals on scene who stated that they rented the home from AirBNB. Numerous complaints came into the police station regarding large amount of party-goers including; fighting, public urination, marijuana use and gun shots. All of these were unfounded. The large party was eventually broken up with the help of mutual aid from RRPD, WLPD and Ohio State Highway Patrol.

On the morning of October 6, the homeowner's daughter arrived on scene and claimed the house was not rented and that no one should be in the home. The party host was contacted and was adamant that he rented the home. He was given the opportunity to produce paperwork regarding the rental. When he could not, he and several guests were evicted from the property.

No arrests were made in the incident. A report was filed and charges may be warranted based upon further investigation.
